

2022 Conference Call For Nominations

AWARDS PROGRAM CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

CALIFORNIA STATE CONFERENCE
Strong Foundations to New Elevations
YOSEMITE | April 10-13

KEY DATES AND AWARD PRESENTATION

The awards process includes submittal of nominations, review of the nominations by the awards jury, selection of awards by the awards jury, and notification to award recipients. Below are some preliminary key dates that outline the awards process.

- » Call for Award Nominations: November 23, 2021
- » Award Nominations Due: January 7, 2022
- » Review of Award Nominations: January/February 2022
- » Awards Recipients Notified: February 25, 2022
- » Awards Presentation: April 2022

If your nomination is selected to receive an Outstanding or Merit Award you will be presented with an award onstage to be recognized during the 2022 AEP State Conference Awards Presentation at Tenaya Lodge in Yosemite, CA. The Awards Ceremony will include a visual presentation of the achievements for the Outstanding and Merit Award winners. The presentation will include a brief overview to highlight the level of award (Outstanding or Merit), location of the project, client, and/or firm involved in the project. Certificate winners will also be recognized. Award recipients will be required to sign a release allowing AEP to publicize and/or publish the nomination package to promote the outstanding work of California environmental professionals.

MANDATORY SUBMITTAL REQUIREMENTS

All of the following documentation must be provided in digital format (except the Entry Fee). Due to AEP Awards Jury time constraints and cost factors, incomplete nominations will not be considered. The Award Nominator (AEP member) shall serve as the primary point of contact for the award submittal and its content. To submit an award please follow these 2 easy steps:

STEP 1: Nomination Submittal Form and Entry Fee.

Please complete all sections of the Nomination Submittal Form (see last page) and mail a copy along with the required $50.00 nomination fee to Lynne Bynder at the address listed below. Please note that the entry fee is not required for Certificates of Appreciation, Certificates of Achievement, Advancing Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion, or Outstanding Chapter Activity. Non-profit organizations and agencies may request a fee waiver for an award nomination.

» OUTSTANDING ENVIRONMENTAL ANALYSIS DOCUMENT

This award is given to the agency or firm publishing an outstanding environmental analysis or assessment document including, but not limited to:

- Environmental Impact Reports;
- Environmental Impact Statements;
- Environmental Assessments; and
- Mitigated Negative Declarations

Draft, Final, Supplemental, Subsequent, Addendum, and Program versions of such documents are appropriate for this award category. The Awards Jury will consider other types of documents suitable for this award, if judged to be appropriate. AEP may issue separate awards for major projects. The documents will be judged on the basis of the following criteria:

- Completeness — adequate, reliable, and thorough presentation of substantive documentation and data;
- Organization — clear structure, tracks State CEQA or NEPA format;
- Clarity of Writing and Presentation — readable by laypersons, decision-makers and professionals alike, minimal use of acronyms;
- Economy of Language — concise, direct, and to the point; technical information is provided in appendices;
- Adequacy of Summary — concise and salient, tells the full story;
- Unique Methodology, original approach to analysis and data presentation; and
- Public Involvement — extent of public outreach and involvement in document preparation.

» OUTSTANDING ENVIRONMENTAL RESOURCE DOCUMENT

This award is given to an individual agency or firm publishing an outstanding environmental resource document. The award is for environmental documents which have a broader application, or can serve as a resource for a wide range of environmental professionals, as distinguished from an impact analysis or assessment document which addresses specific projects or programs. Appropriate documents for consideration in this award category may include, but are not limited to:

- Manuals for preparing Environment Impact Reports;
- Significance Threshold Guidelines;
- Mitigation Monitoring Programs; and
- Other Non-Impact Analysis/Assessment Studies and Reports.

At a minimum, such documents should have usefulness to other environmental professionals and have applications for a wide range of geographical areas or conditions. The AEP Awards Jury will evaluate these types of documents on the basis of the following criteria:

- Creativity and Innovation — originality of methodology, format, or approach to an issue;
- Transferability — ability to adapt methodology or apply information to different situations;
- Methodology — sound and well-substantiated approach and/or analysis to presentation of data and conclusions; and
- Clarity — “user friendly” presentation of technical information, with direct and concise language and/or graphics appropriate for audience.

» OUTSTANDING PLANNING DOCUMENT

This award is given to the agency or firm publishing a land use, transportation or other plan that best accommodates projected population growth in a compact form to protect California’s environmental resources, minimize greenhouse gas emissions, and provide urban recreation and natural open space. These include but are not limited to:

- General Plan Elements;
- Specific Plans;
- Housing Elements;
- Sustainable Communities Strategy Plans;
- Transportation Plans; and
- Neo-Traditional or New Urbanist Plans.

The plans will be judged on the basis of the following criteria:

- Protection of sensitive environmental resources and agriculture;
- Accommodation of HCD and COG population growth projections;
- Regional jobs/housing balance to reduce commuting;
- Provision of housing affordable to a range of household incomes; and
- Provision of complete streets (public transit, bikeways, and pedestrian paths).

» OUTSTANDING CLIMATE CHANGE DOCUMENT

This category includes Climate Action Plans, Adaptation Plans, Resiliency Plans, CEQA Documents, significance thresholds, implementation guidelines, technical assistance documents, AB32 scoping plans, public information documents, and research documents. For plans or projects that are intended to reduce greenhouse gas emissions the criteria includes:

- Methodology: Identifies impacts of concern, scale and scope of risk, and context of climate disruption.
- Performance Monitoring: Includes metrics to track and monitor progress.
- Backstop: Integrates adaptability and flexibility into implementation plans to adjust based new information and changing conditions.
- Metrics: Relies on metrics that clearly characterize climate risk (i.e., scale and scope of risk, vulnerability and adaptive capacity, economic impacts)
- Vulnerable Communities: Clearly identifies impacts to vulnerable communities (if any) and includes mitigating factors. Describes outreach efforts to vulnerable communities.

» ADVANCING DIVERSITY, EQUITY, AND INCLUSION

AEP is committed to advancing diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI) in both the planning and environmental fields. This award celebrates individuals, organizations, and programs advancing DEI, both internally through workplace initiatives, programs, and policies, and externally through engaging with the community, and/or the field in general. One award for individuals and one award for an agency/firm may be presented to those who meet and exceed the following criteria:

- Demonstrate a commitment with dedicated resources and measurable outcomes to advancing DEI;
- Champion innovative and progressive practices that raise awareness of DEI and accessibility; and/or
- Implement and advocate for policies that serve as a catalyst for change in the areas of DEI and accessibility at that local/regional level.
- Educate the public about accomplishments of current and historic figures, from underserved communities, who have supported the advancement of the planning and environmental professions.

Note: No registration fee is required for this award nomination.

» OUTSTANDING PUBLIC INVOLVEMENT/ EDUCATION PROGRAM

This award is given to individual agencies, firms, or organizations who have conducted an outstanding public involvement or educational program. This category serves the AEP awards program criteria of public involvement and social equity. To be considered for this award, the nominated public involvement or education program should meet and exceed the following criteria:

- Increase the public's awareness of environmental issues and facilitate their role in the environmental planning, analysis, and review process;
- Provide a clear message consistent with AEP's objectives: enhance, protect and maintain the natural and human environments,
- Engage community-based organizations, advocacy groups, and trusted leaders to develop an outreach strategy focused on increasing public participation in disadvantaged communities.
- Demonstrate social equity and address environmental justice, by promoting accessibility, collaboration, information sharing, and empowerment.
- Emphasize creative use of media (e.g: Social Media);
- Use methodology or paradigm which has broad applicability and is replicable by other agencies, firms, or organizations; and
- Includes measures to demonstrate its effectiveness — e.g., level of participation, adoption of model ordinances, or descriptions of other changes in behavior or benefits resulting from the program.

» OUTSTANDING MEDIA COVERAGE OF AN ENVIRONMENTAL TOPIC

This award is given to an individual writer, editor, or publication for an outstanding article or series of articles or for the demonstration of unbiased, factual coverage of environmental issues. Similarly, writers, producers, or individual radio or television shows or web sites responsible for outstanding coverage of an environmental topic are also eligible for this award.

The AEP Awards Jury will evaluate nominations under this category using the following criteria:

- Relevance to the public at large and environmental justice;
- Demonstrated depth of research of the topic at hand;
- Clarity and quality of the presentation; and
- Usefulness of the coverage in empowering the reader, listener, or viewer toward positive environmental action (e.g., article includes references to volunteer organizations, use of social media, provides practical tips for use at home or work, provides maps and directions to areas of interest, etc.)

» OUTSTANDING CHAPTER ACTIVITY

The Chapter Activity Award is given to a Chapter or Chapters for an activity, program, or workshop of unusually high merit.

The AEP Awards Jury will evaluate nominations under this category using the following criteria:

- Accessibility and relevance for AEP members;
- Outreach to others outside of the AEP;
- Provision of tools and information that can be used in practice by participants; and
- Transferability to other AEP chapters.

Note: No registration fee is required for this award nomination.

» CERTIFICATE OF ACHIEVEMENT

This award is given to an individual, firm, agency, or organization for unique achievements in an environmental field or activity. Nominees need not be members of AEP. AEP has recognized achievements of excellence in the environmental profession, and in a specific environmental field or on an issue or topic. The award is also appropriate for any significant environment-related activity that has been highly successful and noteworthy, including newspaper or magazine reporting, development of key legislation, implementation of progressive program, etc.

In addition to the form, nominations must include:

- Resume of nominee;
- Reasons for recognition and statements of endorsement from knowledgeable persons; and
- Sufficient substantive supporting material to allow the awards committee to make an evaluation without seeking further information or performing research.

Note: No registration fee is required for this award nomination.

» CERTIFICATE OF APPRECIATION

This award is given to AEP members who have made outstanding contributions (excluding monetary) to either the state AEP organization or a local chapter. The AEP Awards Committee encourages each chapter board to nominate at least one person within their chapter. In addition to the form, the nomination must include:

- Name, address, and phone number of the nominee;
- Substantive Reasons for recognition; and
- Statements of endorsement from knowledgeable persons.

Note: No registration fee is required for this award nomination.
